MISSION STATEMENT

To be a centre of achievement for the benefit of its defined community and South African Education.

To provide its pupils and teachers with the very best opportunities to develop to potential.

To engender in its pupils sound moral values and a sense of belief in self.

To attain excellence in academic and extramural spheres.

To attract and retain the services of the very best staff.

To provide good facilities and state-of-the-art equipment for education of the highest standard.

To prepare its pupils for the challenges of a culturally diverse society.

To ensure a dynamic partnership between parents, teachers and pupils.
